

HIS TOO ARDENT LOVE.O. Seffer Arrested for Threatening to Kill Mrs. Martenovich.

Christ M. Seffer, an Austrian cook, was arrested last night for threatening to kill Mrs. Sofia Martenovich, a widow living at 1916 Leavenworth street. Mrs. Martenovich is a comely country woman of Seffer and is possessed of considerable property. Yesterday she appealed to Chief of Police Crowley for protection from Seffer. She said she had never met Seffer, but friends told her that he had expressed great admiration for her and seemed to think that he had a right to marry her. She noticed that the cook stood guard over her house for hours at a time, and she sent a message telling him to go about his business. On receiving the message Seffer flew into a rage and said that he would kill her with two large horse pistols that he had. He still watched the house and she was afraid that he would carry out his threat. A warrant was sworn to for Seffer's arrest.

When Officer James Smith served the document upon Seffer in his room at 405½ Gough street last night the cook became very angry and showed fight. Seffer is a powerfully built young fellow and the policeman had a sharp struggle to overpower him.

Struck by a Train.

Patrick Murray, a laborer, 26 years of age, was struck and seriously injured by a south-bound Southern Pacific train yesterday afternoon at the crossing of Twenty-eighth and Dolores streets. His clothes were torn from his body and his head and face were terribly cut and bruised. He was taken to a drug store at Twenty-fourth and Church streets and thence, after his wounds had been dressed, to his home at 318 Twenty-eighth street.
