

Bridgemen Insist on Union Wage Scale

Union Will Observe Anniversary— Move to Larger Quarters— Labor News.

The Building Trades Council has been officially informed that the bridgemen employed on the Duncan-street bridge, between Dolores and Church streets, suspended work because the railroad company refused to pay $5.00 a day, the union wage scale.

• • • • •

Waitresses' Union, No. 48, finding its present headquarters inadequate to the growing demand of that union, will remove to more spacious quarters at 159 Mason street. The union has endorsed the candidacy of Past President Louis LaRue for auditor of the international union.

• • • • •

Carpenters' Union, No. 22, will celebrate its thirty-first anniversary at a ball to be given this evening in the Building Trades Temple auditorium, Guerrero and Fourteenth streets.

• • • • •

J. J. Murphy, delegate at large of the Building Trades Council to the convention of the State Building Trades at Los Angeles, submitted an exhaustive report of the work of that convention to the council at its last meeting, which was approved.

• • • • •

W. J. Spencer, secretary-treasurer of the Building Trades department, American Federation of Labor, who is on his way to Los Angeles, is expected to visit San Francisco shortly.

• • • • •

Rev. Harry F. Ward of Chicago, secretary of the Social Service Commission of the Methodist church, addressed the Building Trades Council Thursday evening upon the work in which the labor organizations are engaged for the betterment of conditions for wage workers.