the result of the mill-owners'

Wednesday night's meeting that under no circumstances would they consent to arbitra-

of the employes for an eight-running is considered an indication that the strikers are losing ground.

DESPERATE BURGLAR FATALLY SHOOTS A SPECIAL POLICEMAN

Crook, Surprised While at Work in a Saloon, Fires Two Shots at George F. Nichols to Prevent the Officer From Arresting Him.

EORGE F. NICHOLS, a special policeman, was shot and fatally wounded by a burglar whom he surprised at his work in a saloon at the corner of Sansome and Merchant streets last evening. The crook who committed the crime ran off into the darkness and made his escape. The incident was rendered thrilling by the bravery dis-played by the officer and also by the desrate resistance made by the criminal. who, when he found himself trapped, chose murder as a means of evading prison bars.

The shooting occurred shortly after 8 o'clock in the doorway of the saloon. The burglar was on the inside in total darkness, and the command of the officer to surrender was answered by two reports from a pistol. Both builets struck Nichols, and though fatally wounded he fired a shot in return and grappled with the crook until his strength failed him. Two men whom he had called to his assistance deserted him and he was obliged to sit in a doorway, bleeding and exhausted, until help came. past two months a number of

Some of the millmen are wrought up over President McCarthy's statement that there would be no general strike ordered. In speaking of the matter yesterday one of the millmen said: "We did not want to begin this movement, but were led into it by the building trades and expected their support. Two weeks have elapsed and P. H. McCarthy announces that there will be no general strike. If this be true the wisest course to pursue is to return to work at once." more adapted to one in his station of life.

The mystery surrounding the Rev. Mr. Scott's disappearance having been explained, the police of this city and Sait Lake City feel relieved. The minister left the latter city on June 26 to take temporary charge of the little church in Ben Lomond, near Santa Cruz. About August 10 he left that town and came to this city, en route to Sait Lake. While here he essayed a study of the tenderloin with a view to preaching a sermon on its wickedness when he returned to his home. His intentions were good, but the clinking of wine glasses and the smiles of the lair revelers proved too much for the CO-OPERATIVE his Brannan-street mill on the day the trouble began, started up Tuesday with six men, and yesterday he added two more to fifs force, one of whom is a member of the union. A second union man reported to Mr. Little last evening, and he will be put to work this morning.

At the meeting of the Mill-owners' Association Wednesday evening a committee was appointed to meet with the Builders' Exchange to-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, when the strike situation is to be discussed. This will be a special meeting and will be held at the request of a number of mill-owners, members of the Exchange, who are anxious for an expression of opinion from the organization. The membership of the Exchange, between 300 and 400, is made up of all the dealers who supply building material.

It is stated that the mill-owners have been assured of the support of many big corporations throughout the State, which feel that if the employes here be successful in their demand for an eight-hour workday it will only be a question of time before the employers in other branches of manufacturing will be called upon to make similar concessions. It is stated that the Union Iron Works is slated for a change of working hours if the planing-mill operators prove successful.

The Excelsior Redwood Company, on Fourth street, which has one of the largest plants in the city, is running with a full quota of help. This mill was running slack at first, but yesterday Manager Moore had more applications than he could handle, and he sent quite a few men to other mills in the city.

C. W. Burgess put on two men yesterday, which he says will be sufficient for several weeks to come. He has been running a machine himself ever since the trouble began.

LIQUOR MEN ARE WIDOW OF COLONEL LISCUM ORGANIZING FOR COMING ON THE THOMAS Remains of the Hero of Tientsin Still Remain in China, to Be THEIR DEFENSE Brought Here Later On. G. M. Divin, brother-in-law of the late Colonel E. H. Liscum, the gallant com-mander of the Ninth Regiment, arrived at mander of the Ninth Regiment, arrived at the Palace last night. Colonel Liscum was killed on July 13, before the walls of Tientsin while leading his famous command in an assault upon the fanatical Chinese. The mission of Mr. Divin is a sad one, by reason of the fact that he comes to meet the widow of Colo: Liscum and to escort her to her home Elmira, New York. Mrs, Liscum was with her husband in Manlia when the trouble began in Peking and when Colonel Liscum was ordered to the new scene of carnage, she remained in the Philippine capital, expecting that her husband would not be long absent. The next she heard of him was the announcement of his death while in action. Wholesalers and Retailers to Combine for Better Protection.

Police Commission Takes a Back Track and Concludes to Grant "Pop" Sullivan a License With Restrictions.

As a result of these ideas they have taken steps to organize a strong body of wholesalers and retailers in order that they may be in a better position to deal with such a case as that of "Pop" Sullivan and his Hoffman Cafe, the temporary suppression of which shocked them greatly. A goodly number of the trade assembled at B'mai B'rith Hail yesterday aftermoon to arrange for organization. The meeting was called by E. L. Wagner and william Clack, chairman and secretary pro tem, respectively.

The recent actions of the Police Commissioners in dealing with the saloonmen have aroused the wholesale and retail dealers as they have never been aroused before. They feel that they have been unfairly dealt with, and they think if they had been properly organized they would have been in a far better position to deal with current conditions, and thereby avoid the loss of a large amount of business.

meeting was called by E. L. Wagner and william Clack, chairman and secretary pro tem, respectively.

After discussing the situation thoroughly, a committee of ten of the representative members of the retail branch was appointed to arrange for consolidation with the wholesaiers. This will be accomplished at an early date.

While the liquor men were conferring, the Police Commissioners were, to a certical extent, taking a back track in the Sullivan case. Sullivan and his attorney were called before the board. The saloon man was told that the commission did not desire to work a hardship on him, and his license would be renewed. As Sullivan had no recourse he gave the suggested pledge.

President Newhall moved that the license be granted on that promise, and it canse be granted on that promise, and it canse be granted on that promise, and it canse be granted to the board that his client had conducted the place nine years and had invested in it nearly $90,000.
