just across the county line from San Francisco, which permits would not be tolerated in San Francisco or in other parts of this county. The pool sellers would stand as good a chance of getting a foothold at Colma or Ocean View as did James Coffroth, the prize fight promoter, and it is not at all unlikely that the poolrooms would be located within the big fight arena. It is well known that for years the poolroom owners of Sausalito have looked with covetous eyes upon San Mateo county as covetous eyes upon San Mateo co a location to establish their gambling places. It would suit their ends far better to be settled just across the county line from San Francisco than their Marin location. Just at this particular time we are not in a position to carry the very large stock of Grand Pianos stored in our warehousesbesides some twenty in our retail store. Insurance, our safeguard from loss by fire, has been reduced to such an extent that we do not care to carry the extra risk ourselves, hence this Sacrifice Sale. Nearly forty Grands—the Small and Parlor Sizes—to select from—pianos used and indorsed by the greatest collection of artists in the world will go on Sale

Monday Morning at Nine O'Clock Sharp AT OR NEAR COST—Reductions Varying From $150 to $250

This is a sale of Grands only-never attempted before in the United States that we know of, especially on instruments that have a uniform price all over the world, but no one else ever knew of such conditions. At any rate they must be sold, at least half our present stock, and we have marked them at "Must Go" prices for Monday and Tuesday. Early callers naturally have choice. Before the existing "unsettled conditions" here we could not get enough grand pianos of the kind we handle to keep samples in the store, the demand was so great. Large shipments were ordered, which were caught in the freight blockade delayed—came in all at once, taxing us to the utmost to store them, an experience most merchants have had of late, and besides carrying entirely too much excess fire insurance ourselves. Never in the history of this house have we had such a collection of expensive Grands-half of them must be sold to protect ourselves. Tomorrow we will offer values of an extraordinary sortsavings never before made to the general public, and a selection from nearly forty small and Parlor Grands, of unquestioned highest quality.
